REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION CONCERNING PLEA OF GUILTY

SHYDAY MUTURI, by consent, under authority of United States v. Dees, 125 F.3d 261 (5th Cir. 1997), has appeared before me pursuant to Fed. R. Crim.P. 11, and has entered a plea of guilty to Counts 1 and 2 of the two-count Superseding Information filed February 17, 2017. After cautioning and examining SHYDAY MUTURI under oath concerning each of the subjects mentioned in Rule 11, I determined that the guilty plea was knowledgeable and voluntary and that the offenses charged are supported by an independent basis in fact containing each of the essential elements of such offense. I therefore recommend that the plea of guilty be accepted, and that SHYDAY MUTURI be adjudged guilty of Conspiracy to Commit Offenses Against the United States, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371(18 U.S.C. §§ 1029(b) and 1343), and Attempted Escape from Federal Confinement, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 751(a) and have sentence imposed accordingly. After being found guilty of the offense by the district judge,

D	The de	efendant is currently in custody and should be ordered to remain in custody.
		efendant must be ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(1) unless the Court finds by clear and acing evidence that the defendant is not likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community ased.
		The Government does not oppose release. The defendant has been compliant with the current conditions of release. I find by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant is not likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community if released and should therefore be released under § 3142(b) or (c).
		The Government opposes release. The defendant has not been compliant with the conditions of release. If the Court accepts this recommendation, this matter should be set for hearing upon motion of the Government.
	The defendant must be ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) unless (1)(a) the Court finds there is substantial likelihood that a motion for acquittal or new trial will be granted, or (b) the Government he recommended that no sentence of imprisonment be imposed, or (c) exceptional circumstances are clearly show under § 3145(c) why the defendant should not be detained, and (2) the Court finds by clear and convincing evident that the defendant is not likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community if released.
